

Heidel, Prof. W. A.

- [Prof. of Greek, Wesleyan University,
Middletown, CT], 1920

136 High St., Middlebury, Conn., April 28. 1920.

Dear Sir:-

By appointment of the American Philological Association I write the annual review of 'Greek Literature' for The American Year Book. As you are probably aware the Year Book has come to be more consulted than any other publication by American librarians with reference to publications in special fields. Its large circulation also among scholars and general book-buyers makes it an exceptionally good means of bringing books of merit to their attention. I shall be glad to notice in the next issue E. V. Rieu's The Ptolemaic Hermit of Antioch, which you publish, if you will send me an editorial copy.

Very truly yours,

W. L. Heidel

(Professor of Greek in Wesleyan University)

April 30th, 1920.

Prof. W. A. Heidel,
136 High Street,
Middletown, Conn.

Dear Sir:-

In response to your letter of the 28th of April, I take pleasure in sending you, under separate cover, a copy of Mr. Newell's "Seleucid Coins of Antioch". We should be very glad to see a copy of the review which you prepare for the Year Book of the American Philological Association.

May I add that we should be very glad to welcome you when you are in New York if you find an opportunity for visiting our Museum.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.